

of Praemonstratensians who will eventually found a monastery there and undertake missionary work in the Western portions of the present diocese of Oudtshoorn.

* * *

Rev. JEAN L'HELGOUACH, O.M.I. and MAURICE MÉTAYER, O.M.I. — Angadjutitka (Eskimo Missal-Hymn Book) 406 p. Copyright 1953, by Oblate Fathers, Mackenzie Vicariate). Printed by Mission Press, 67, Bond Street, Toronto (Canada).

The Eskimos of the Mackenzie Vicariate will surely be proud of possessing such a volume as « Angadjutitka » which will enable them to know and better understand the Word of God. This Missal-Hymn Book will likewise enable them to unite themselves to their brethren all over the world who recite the same beautiful prayers of the Catholic Liturgy and to sing in their own language the faith of the Catholic Church.

The Western Arctic Catholic Eskimos and their missionaries of the Mackenzie Vicariate are especially grateful to the Catholic Church Extension Society, and its President, Monsignor McDonagh, for the invaluable assistance given them in having this book printed. « Operation Eskimo » has also become better known throughout Canada because of so much indefatigable efforts. In consequence, numerous financial contributions have made the dream of possessing an Eskimo Missal-Hymn Book a reality.

* * *

Rev. JOS. ALOYSIUS, O.M.I. — Deva Varaprasadha Mathawo (« Mater divinae gratiae »). — 33 p. 10½ × 13½. 1953. St Vincent's Press, Maggona (Ceylon).

This booklet of Rev. Aloysius O.M.I. is a Sinhalese translation of the « Mother of Grace » based on